

CONLIN TRAVEL RECOGNIZED ON TRAVEL WEEKLY'S 2015 POWER LIST

An Annual Ranking of Top Travel Agencies

Ann Arbor, MI, July 29, 2015 – For the second year running, Conlin Travel, a family owned-and operated Michigan Company, has been recognized on the Travel Weekly Power List, an annual ranking of the top U.S. and global travel agencies. Conlin Travel's ranking on the list is a great achievement for the company as they continue to make strides in the industry, growing more than 20% year-over-year since 2009.

It has been so much fun watching our company grow the last several years in an industry that has been virtually turned upside down with the advent of online booking engines which we fully embrace. We have such an incredible team of industry and technology experts who love coming to work every day, highly energized, with relentless pursuit of continuous improvement. Chris Conlin, President, Conlin Travel.

As the largest Travel Management Company in the state of Michigan, Conlin Travel takes pride in their history, extensive knowledge in travel management and ability to be large enough to handle the most complex travel programs yet small enough to be nimble and proactive.
